INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS.

LONDON, July 23.

The temper that marked the reception meeting between the English and American Universities on Saturday at the Queen's Club was beyond reproach. Perfect American weather prevailed. The Royal box was crowded, the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York and Mr Choate, United States Ambassador, and Mr Choate's wife present. The scene was one of the greatest animation. The American competitors appeared to manifest slight nervousness over the preliminaries but stripped admirably. Harvard and Yale cries were deafening, o'crowd of sympathisers falling funds for the voyage having worked their way over from America to attend the contest. The results came out as follows:

Oxford won the long jump.

The result produced immense enthusiasm in the huge crowd of spectators who swarmed over the ground throwing up showers of flags and hats. It is fully expected that the meeting will now become an annual affair, being held on opposite sides of the Atlantic alternately.
